

The Washington, the first stern paddle-wheel steamboat, left from Louisville, Kentucky, on March 3, 1816. It travelled the Mississippi River from to New Orleans and back to Louisville.